

Christmas Jubilee

Parade of Lights

Presented by:
and the City of Woodstock

Saturday, December 1, 2012
5:30 p.m.

Parade Route

Main St. from Hwy. 92 to Woodstock Elementary School on Rope Mill Rd.
See website for route and road closures. Rain or Shine!

Before the parade:

- 2:00 pm - The Elm Street Players will perform The Lazy Elves at the Elm Street Theatre at City Center. Free admission, but please bring a can of chili, stew, or chunky soup to help local food pantries!
- 5:15 pm – Ready, set, go! The second annual Woodstock Christmas Run gets underway down Main St. from Hwy 92 right in front of the parade!
- 5:30 pm – Here comes the parade with marching bands and Santa!

After the parade, in The Park at City Center: (101 Arnold Mill Rd.)

- Visits with Santa!
- Christmas tree and park lighting!
- Best parade floats and Citizen of the Year awards!
- Free marshmallow roast with s' mores and cookies from BJ's!
- Free Moonwalk provided by Colby Family Chiropractic!
- Ronnie the DJ and food vendors before, during, & after the parade!
- Special vendors in the park for early holiday shopping!
- Movie in the Park at 8:00pm - Lower Level - Rudolph and The Grinch brought to you by Northside Hospital - Cherokee and the Woodstock DDA
- Santa needs your help! Please bring an unwrapped toy to The Park for the Woodstock Jaycee's Christmas Toy Drive. We appreciate your support!
- Santa's Mailbox at the Gazebo! Have the kids bring their letters to Santa and just before Christmas, they will receive a personalized letter back from him! Available December 1st – 17th.

City of Woodstock Parks and Recreation Department
www.WoodstockParksandRec.com
770-517-6788, mstockdale@woodstockga.gov